Police Cover for Shabbat

In the light of the terrible events on the Continent, I have agreed with local police that extra, hopefully more visible, uniformed cover will be provided on Shabbat for the foreseeable future. If pressures prevent them from stationing a marked car outside for the whole service, they have promised to provide regular, drive-by cover.

I trust that this will go towards ensuring our safety.

Anyone wishing to join the CST, please contact me as there may be opportunities to join a full training course.
